

Understand Your Leadership Style

15 & 16 March 2010 | Fort William

Increase your awareness of your leadership style with Karen Darke and the Social Enterprise Academy. Discover your potential to lead yourself and your organisation forward at this inspiring two-day event.

Karen Darke will take you on a learning journey to help you identify the leadership style of your organisation. You will leave the event able to assess the effects different leadership styles, including your own, have on your organisation.

“The Academy has a unique way of making you believe in yourself and helping you to discover skills you never knew you had.”

A.F., 2009

The programme takes place on 15 & 16 March 2010. Places are available at no cost. Further information and application forms are available from:

Facilitator: Karen Darke

Karen is Director of Inspire and Impact. She believes that life is an adventure to be enjoyed and learned from. As a keen runner and mountaineer, Karen was paralysed in a rock-climbing accident and despite the challenges of combining wheels with wilderness, she was compelled to continue escaping the world of concrete for the inspiration of the natural environment. Karen's experiences have catalysed her interest in human development. She is passionate about people, and the development opportunities life has to offer. (read more)
